Why we need your help:

Able Hands Together is at an exciting stage in its journey, as we are look to set up new projects and develop existing projects. To develop into new areas, we rely largely on applying for grants. We are looking for someone who can help us to write funding proposals and identify grants that we can apply for. This is an extremely rewarding role. The work you do in helping us secure additional funds with make a real difference to the service that we can offer to people with learning difficulties and their families.

What we need you to bring to the organisation:

- Ability to work as part of a team.
- Good organisational and written skills.
- Self-motivation.

What we can offer you:

- The opportunity to gain skills and experience within a supportive and professional team.
- To become part of the farm family.
- Regular support from your line manager.

What we ask of you:

- To be able to provide a non-judgemental approach and to ensure boundaries are maintained.
- To follow Able Hands Together's policies and procedures
- To complete documentation relating to the role.
- To be able to complete given tasks.
- To undertake any training required.
